This is a unique opportunity to use a global brand name and an iconic UK book title to further the use and the learning of the Welsh Language. In a partnership between Ymarfwe Cyf trading as brand name eto Apps and Michelin Maps and Guides, we propose Welsh Language usage and learning through the creation of the first digital versions of the I-Spy books. For the first time these titles will be in App format; for the first time they will be in the Welsh Language. We have a unique offering and proposition; for the first time the user will be able to click on words and full paragraphs of text to hear in audio format the words correctly pronounced and/ or read to them in Welsh..

Initially we propose making six titles making 6 separate Apps in all, contained within this Grant application.. These will be:

On a Car Journey

At the Seaside

Castles

At the Airport

Animals

Classic Cars

The intention in using these titles and the new digital functionality that we are adding is to create an exciting, fun and dynamic new way of Learning Welsh. To simplify, we not only create a unique 'first' with this iconic Brand name, we also 'Gamify' the learning of Welsh.

In addition to the Welsh text and audio options, the user will also be able to upload their own photographs of the reference image. This is an exciting and innovative enhancement to the existing printed format. When all images have been 'seen' and photographed, the user will receive an email 'certificate' for each completed title.

Each of the above printed titles have sold in excess of 50, 000 titles in the UK.

The products will be published to the App Store for Apple versions and Google Play for Android. The technology will allow immediate availability globally; also attracting interest from Welsh speakers and learners outside of Wales, for example in USA, Australia, New Zealand and Patagonia. (We have been selling the Welsh National Anthem App in these territories.

The IPR will be shared between Ymarfwe Cyf and Michelin Maps and Guides. The budget for the App production has been based on our experience of other App production and quotes from external suppliers. The Licence for the use of I-Spy brand name and titles is 6 years but renewable. The cost to the end user is expected to be no more than £3.99 per App to fit in with the Standard Price Tiers for iTunes and Google Play Android.

Original History of I_Spy : <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/I-Spy>

Present Book format: <http://www.ispymichelin.com/>

The company Ymarfwe Cyf was formed in 2010 but did not start trading until 2013. At this time it launched a Welsh Language music practice website for schools at : <http://ymarfwe.com/> followed by an English version at: <http://www.etomusicpractice.co.uk/>

This was followed by its own unique and original App music practice player (App engine) which is now selling music practice across the globe.

Revenues for 2013/14 were therefore minimal. However, in 2014 the company won or was commissioned by the National Library of Wales, as well as Dallas School of Music, Texas, USA and finally more recently Michelin Maps and Guides to develop Apps. The revenues and accounts for 2014 will therefore show a 500% increase on the previous year.
