Subject: RE: Commit to Quit - Grant offer letter - Aug 2016 - Jan 2018 (A14895605)

Hi [REDACTED] ,

Hope all is good,

I have revised the grant offer letter so it all matches

I have had a look at the figures today, and it is all looking good.

We have until August to complete the year... but the figures to date show that

307 young people have completed the project

205 = 67% have made a quit attempt

163 = 80% registered a reading below 10 at 4 weeks

129 = 63% have registered a reading below 7 at 4 weeks

We were tasked with

250 completing the project

175 = 70% of young people making a quit attempt

105 = 60% of young people still quitters at 4 weeks with a CO score <10

79 = 45% of people participating are still quitters at 4 weeks with a CO score <7

So all looking very positive. We have a further 29 young people who have not completed the course.. so the figures should be even higher.

The reason that we are seeking a change to the schedule is because we have been awarded a WCVA grant that will run concurrently with commit to quit. It is for a future leaders project, which although smoking based is not the same as the intensive cessation project.

In order to run both projects, we will need to spread our resources over a longer period of time and therefore would be grateful if the payments could be changed.

How does 10:30 on Tuesday grab you?

Best wishes

Hi [REDACTED],

Thanks for confirming. I personally can't see a problem but I will have to put it on the schedule and run it past our grants team. I have amended the schedule in the attached (page 17) - can you confirm whether this looks correct to you and can you include new claim dates etc. ? Also do any of the milestones need to change on page 13? Does the final claim date go beyond originally agreed date?

If you can fill this in then I will be able to make a decision on whether a variation letter is required.

Thanks

Shall we go for 4th? Any time is fine for me and I will come across to you.

So if you can action the above then hopefully I can get that sorted soon,

Thanks

Hi [REDACTED]

How are things in the hot seat today? We are having a blast lol.. anyway.

What I was hoping to do with the grant is to split the remaining 6mths of money over 8 mths.

We basically have two payments left at 18,051 = £36,103 and instead of two like that it would be great if we could have three of £12,034.33 = £36,103

I hope this makes sense.

I am free on the 4th or the 11th... if that is any good to you.

Speak soon

Hi [REDACTED] ,

I have attached your grant offer letter for Commit to Quit. I have been going through some of the emails you sent to Ade but can I just ask you to mark in red what you want to change on the schedule. Can you be really basic with me so that I can grasp what you want to do? Also can you advise when the next payment is due - Aug I assume?

I noticed on page 12 that the total for both financial year sis more than the grant offer letter.

Once I am clear I will approach our grants unit - but personally I don't think there is much to be done.

Thanks [REDACTED],

Also if you let me have dates you're free I will come across to your offices with Vicki and do the progress meeting with you for the core grant.

Thanks
