5th December 2017

Dear ,

ATISN 11792 – Advice to Minister to answer WAQ 64286

Thank you for your request which I received on 29 November 2017. You asked for any information relating to the answer provided by the Minister for Finance and Leader of the House at the time to a written assembly question (WAQ 64286) in 2013 about Wales Interpreter and Translation Service (WITS) and its failure to allow users to choose a named translator.

Following a search of records I can confirm that the Welsh Government does not hold the information you have requested.

The request you sent me contains personal information about you - for example, your name and address. I will only use this personal information in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998 to deal with your request and any matters which arise as a result of it. I will keep your personal information and all other information relating to your request for three years from the date on which your request is finally closed. Your personal information will then be disposed of securely.

Any information released under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 or Environmental Information Regulations 2004 will be listed in the Welsh Government's Disclosure Log:
