Hi [hepgorwyd adran 40(2)]

Yes, that's right. To allow these Regs to be debated on 20 March, they must be laid on Tuesday 27 February.

Thanks,

All,

The Minister has now agreed to meet with opposition spokespeople on Tuesday 27th (morning) to discuss these Regulations. Therefore the Minister does not want to lay the regulations until the afternoon of Tuesday 27 Feb after these meetings have been held (they should not be laid on 26 Feb as previously stated). I believe that 27 Feb is the last possible laying date that will allow the Plenary debate to go ahead on 20 March.

Can you confirm that this is ok?

Diolch

Hi [hepgorwyd adran 40(2)]

Thank you for this MA. The Minister has agreed:

- to lay in draft the No. 7 Regulations at doc 1 at the National Assembly on 26 February. A Plenary debate has been booked for 20 March;
- the Explanatory Memorandum at doc 3 and agreed to it being laid in draft at the National Assembly;
- the Government's response to the consultation on draft Welsh Language Standards for health sector bodies at doc 4 and agree to it being published on 26 February;
- to the advice from officials in paragraphs 5.18-5.20 regarding the timing of meetings with Opposition Spokespeople.

The Cabinet Secretary for Health and Social Services will now consider this MA. As mentioned below the Cabinet Secretary for Education has been sent this MA for Information only.

Thanks

As there are no financial implications with this, the Cabinet Secretary for Education does not need to formally clear. We'll provide the MA to the Cab Sec for info as a copy recipient only.

Diolch yn fawr
