Dear

ATISN 13413– Deliberate Fires

Thank you for your request which I received on 17 September. You asked for the following information:

For the financial year 2018/19 and in relation to each deliberate fire started in Wales during that period.

- The date, time and location (coordinates) of each incident.*
- The period of time fire crews were in attendance (from the time the first crew arrived at the scene to the point at which the call was closed) and the total number of pumps attending.*
- The category (primary/secondary) and type (building, road vehicle, etc) of fire and whether there were any fatalities or non-fatal casualties, (including first aid and precautionary checks) associated with each incident.*

This data, together with definitions of a deliberate fire, Primary and Secondary fires is attached in Annex 1.

The grid references we have supplied have been rounded to the nearest 100m as we have a duty to protect confidentiality of personal information and the publication of data at this level of detail, when taken alongside other information that we release publicly, could lead to the disclosure of personal information

I hope that you find this information helpful.

If you are dissatisfied with the Welsh Government's handling of your request, you can ask for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this response. Requests for an internal review should be addressed to the Welsh Government's Freedom of Information Officer at:

Information Rights Unit,
Welsh Government,
Cathays Park,
Cardiff,
CF10 3NQ

or Email: Freedom.ofinformation@gov.wales

Please remember to quote the ATISN reference number above.

You also have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioner's Office,
Wycliffe House,
Water Lane,
Wilmslow,
Cheshire,
SK9 5AF.

However, please note that the Commissioner will not normally investigate a complaint until it has been through our own internal review process.

Yours sincerely
