June	BBC - G Researching episode provisionally entitled ‘Under Attack’, looking at how mankind has used structures to defend itself throughout the ages, our genius for this episode is James of Saint George. Very interested in featuring

	Beaumaris Castle as this castle is considered to be James' masterpiece. Series of the BAFTA award winning science series "Absolute Genius with Dick and Dom" focussing on giant engineering and the geniuses whose innovations have turned brilliant concepts like suspension bridges, skyscrapers, deep tunnels and giant vehicles into a reality. Each episode will centre on a particular engineering theme or principle, and then focus on three amazing genius inventions that have revolutionised that subject matter.

May	BBC Breakfast - G As part of our General Election coverage we are looking to film live from Beaumaris Castle in the morning to explain the political background of Anglesey, one of the most marginal seats in Wales.
June	ITV WALES NEWS - C Looking to interview members of the public about the outcome of the General Election. Boundless Productions- BBC1 - C Escape to the Country, 5 minute short film where our presenter explores a particular feature of that county which also has national significance. The filming involves our presenter meeting an expert and we shoot it in three set ups- usually a meet and greet to get some background on the site/location and the expert, then possibly a tour or chance for our presenter to explore part of the castle, and then something more in depth- anything offering them a greater insight into the castle, or a chance to get involved with some work or an activity happening on site.
July	Grwp Llandrillo Menai - G The media department in Coleg Menai have been asked to put together a video celebrating Anglesey that will be shown in the council's tent during the upcoming Eisteddfod

	One Tribe TV - C We would like to film an interview between our presenter and someone who could tell him some broad and accessible information about the castle and it's architecture - we're primarily interested in the symmetrical design.
