Thank you [REDACTED]

Furthermore, we have discussed how a slight change to the proposed wording within the bill would enable Welsh Government to follow through with their commitment to ban snares, whilst leaving the door open to the potential to license Humane Cable Restraints for conserving red and amber ground nesting species in Wales.

As demonstrated within the evidence provided, we believe this is essential to conserve curlew and other Section 7 species in Wales.

We don't believe there is a valid reason to include the wording (including licensed use) within the primary legislation. The below wording, as a minimum would give further time for discussion, and save a decision being made hastily which could close the door to future licensing to the detriment of these species in Wales and our future generations.

Please see our suggested changes below. As always we offer our assistance to help Welsh Government and offer to meet and assist your legislative team in the drafting of any future clauses and secondary legislation.

PART 5

WILDLIFE

42 Overview of Part

(1) This Part amends the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 (c. 69).

(2) This is done—

- (a) to prohibit use (~~including licensed use~~) of a snare ~~or any other cable restraint~~ for the purpose of killing or trapping a wild animal, and use of a snare ~~or any other cable restraint~~ in any other way that is likely to injure a wild animal,
- (b) to prohibit use of a glue trap for the purpose of killing or taking an animal, and use of a glue trap in any other way that is likely to catch an animal, and
- (c) to modify the prohibition on use of traps, any electrical device for killing or stunning, or any poisonous, poisoned or stupefying substance, so that it applies where their use is likely to harm a wild animal.

43 Prohibition on use of snares and glue traps

In section 11 of the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 (c. 69) (prohibition of certain methods of killing or taking wild animals), in subsection (1)—

(a) after paragraph (b) insert—

“(ba) sets in position in Wales any snare, ~~or other cable restraint~~, which is of such a nature and so placed as to be likely to cause bodily injury to any wild animal coming into contact with it;

(bb) uses in Wales for the purpose of killing or taking any wild animal any snare, ~~or other cable restraint~~, whether or not of such a nature or so placed as aforesaid;

(bc) sets in position in Wales any glue trap which is of such a nature and so placed as to be likely to catch any animal coming into contact with it;

(bd) uses in Wales for the purpose of killing or taking any animal any glue trap, whether or not of such a nature or so placed as aforesaid;”;

(b) after subsection (7) insert—

“(7ZA) For the purposes of paragraphs (bc) and (bd) of subsection (1), “animal” means a vertebrate (other than a human).”

Last week the Minister asked for a copy of the presentation I gave and previously asked for the video I have attached. The presentation is too large to send via email so I've attached it as a PDF but I would happily send the PPT via WeTransfer if that helps?

Please could you ensure the attached is passed on to the Minister as requested.

Dear [REDACTED]
Just to say I've prepared a small presentation to cover the key points. If I could present our information for the first 15 minutes or so of the meeting, and then leave time for plenty of questions at the end that would be ideal. Hope that's ok?

I know we've not got an agenda but I thought best to have a plan.
Best wishes,

I wondered if it might be possible to add a further colleague in to our meeting tomorrow? Marlies Nicolai (included into this email) works as part of our team at our Scottish demonstration farm Auchnerran, where we have good numbers of curlew and other ground nesting waders and undertake predation management as part of their conservation strategy.

Looking forward to our meeting tomorrow.

Hi [REDACTED]

Apologies for the delay I've been chairing a conference all day.

To confirm 14:00 - 14:30 on Thursday would be fine.

My colleague joining me will be Dr Roger Draycott.

I haven't had time to work out the specifics of an agenda but as we've only half an hour I think the agenda should just focus on the one topic we'll be covering which is 'the role of the humane cable restraint in conservation of vulnerable ground nesting species and need for a licenced approach in Wales'

Please let me know if you need anything else.

Thanks and best wishes,

Matt
