Welsh Government

6 December 2023

Dear ,

Request for information - ATISN 19146

Thank you for your request which I received on 10 October. I apologise for the delay in responding to you.

Your Request

You asked for the following information regarding 2022 authorised road signs:

All specially authorised road signs in Wales throughout the year 2022 (i.e. signs specially authorised because they were not defined in the Traffic Signs Regulations and General Directions).

Our Response

I can confirm that the Welsh Government holds the information you have requested. The signs that were approved are attached as 57 PDF diagrams. These will be sent to you in separate emails due to the large number of attachments.

Next steps

If you are dissatisfied with the Welsh Government's handling of your request, you can ask for an internal review within 40 working days of the date of this response. Requests for an internal review should be addressed to the Welsh Government's Freedom of Information Officer at:

Information Rights Unit,
Welsh Government,

However, please note that the Commissioner will not normally investigate a complaint until it has been through our own internal review process.

The request you sent me contains personal information about you - for example, your name and email address. The Welsh Government will be the data processor for this information and, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation, it will be processed in order to fulfil our public task and meet our legal obligations under the Act to provide you with a response. We will only use this personal information to deal with your request and any matters which arise as a result of it. We will keep your personal information and all other information relating to your request for three years from the date on which your request is finally closed. Your personal information will then be disposed of securely.

Under data protection legislation, you have the right:

- to be informed of the personal data we hold about you and to access it
- to require us to rectify inaccuracies in that data
- to (in certain circumstances) object to or restrict processing
- for (in certain circumstances) your data to be 'erased'
- to (in certain circumstances) data portability
- to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) who is our independent regulator for data protection
