Good morning,

We have received the below email from a constituent regarding permitted development and campsites. Mr Jones would be most grateful if you could please provide your observations on the matter.

Best wishes,

The Office of the Rt Hon. David Jones MP/AS |
Member of Parliament for Clwyd West/Gorllewin Clwyd

Dear [Redacted]

You previously took the trouble to ask Welsh government what their response was to the consultation about extending the 28 days permitted development for 'pop up campsites' to 56 as during the pandemic.

We have heard the news that England had introduced a new class of permitted development for up to 60 days per year camping (tents and campervans/caravans). We understand that it may simply be a technicality/mistake in the way the legislation was written that means that this cannot be applied in Wales. The quote below is from the Freedom camping club.

'Wales! the Amendments specify effect in both England and Wales, however it refers to the GPDO 2015. Temporary use PD in Wales is Class A part 27 of the 1995 GPDO. The 2015 order was not brought into force in Wales'

Are they right? And if so are you able to find out whether this matter is being addressed as a matter of urgency so that Welsh farmers/landowners and local businesses can start to benefit from the change as soon as possible.

Thank you

Yours sincerely
