Questions

Q4. Q1. Should the additional days granted by Class A of Part 4A be retained permanently, permitting temporary uses to take place for up to 56 days (28 days for specified uses) in a calendar year?

Yes

Comments:

The 56 days gives additional flexibility which may or not be used in its entirety depending upon the demand of the market, in the example of certain uses of the land such as for temporary pop-up campsites.

Q5. Q2. Do you have any evidence as to any benefits and impacts as a result of introducing the additional number of days for temporary uses to take place since April? If yes, please specify.

Other

Comments:

No hard evidence, but certainly during the peak of the staycation when demand for pitches on commercial and member sites was so high and many were full to capacity, the temporary pop-up sites provided a useful solution to help accommodate campers, particularly in tourist hot spot areas.

Q6. Q3. Do you have views on whether there should be additional restrictions on the use of this PDR to mitigate against potential impacts of making this permanent? If yes, please specify.

Yes

Comments:

Perhaps a means of administering a register of when the 56 days have been used by individuals or organisations as a way of regulating and demonstrating to local communities that there are control mechanisms in place.

Q7. Q4. Should the number of days for holding a market generally be extended? If Yes, what is an acceptable number of days for holding a market? What conditions should apply to manage the planning impacts?
