Hi both

This is the query we have to respond to this week:
In your statement to Plenary on 12 December 2023, you advised of an additional £750,000 investment in maternity services in Swansea Bay, which would enable the Neath Port Talbot maternity centre to be reopened and the reintroduction of the home birth service at the beginning of this year. Can you please provide an update on the current position and confirm when you anticipate these services being reinstated.
